

LOUIS DOLTON JR.
To Visit Expo '67

Boy Scout Heads for Expo '67

Torrance High School junior Louis Dolton Jr. will join with nine other Boy Scouts from the western United States to serve as guides and honor and color guards at Expo '67 in Montreal this week.

Leaving today, the Press-Herald newsboy will join Scouts from other areas of the Los Angeles Council for a tour of Washington D.C., Philadelphia, and New York City before taking on duties at the Scout Pavilion.

Louis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dolton of 24321 Falena Ave., Lomita, and has delivered the Press-Herald for five years.

His group of Boy Scouts will join 30 Canadian Scouts to serve at the pavilion during his tour of duty. The Pavilion is named on a rotating group basis by Boy Scouts from the two countries.

The Torrance Council's action includes the section of the street from 25th Street near San Pedro to the San Diego Freeway in the north. Former Torrance Councilman Ted Olson was honored during the meeting with a resolution expressing the appreciation for his service on the council.

Olson resigned Aug. 1 due to new business commitments near Chicago, Ill.

... Suspects

She was scheduled to appear in South Bay Municipal Court this morning for arraignment on the charges.

Another suspect, Bartholomew James Blackburn Jr., also is sought by police for questioning in the $15,000 Torrance hold-up and killing.

CHIEF KOENIG told councilmen that it was just a "matter of time" before the suspects were apprehended.

He said that offers of help have come from all local agencies and federal agencies in searching for the killer. "The FBI has not been put on the case yet but they are on stand-by," the Chief continued.

EIGHT surrounding communities sent units to patrol Torrance streets during the funeral Monday, the Chief said.

"We have had more help than we need," Koenig said. Koenig told the council that Officer Seibert did obtain his objectives of an officer that he summed up to be, "duty, honor and service," as well as goals as a man of "love, beauty and friendship."

"No eulogy was needed in the eyes of his fellow officers," Koenig said.

And, according to Koenig, Seibert's name may be used on a future library to be built in Torrance.

"I feel that it would be a fitting tribute if it turns out to be in the scheme of things," the chief added.

However, according to Mrs. Claire Crain, chairman of the city's Library Commission, no plans for naming a library in honor of Seibert were discussed by the commission during a meeting Monday.

Thief Gets Drugs From Med Center

An undetermined amount of drugs were taken from the Crenshaw-Sepulveda Medical Center over the weekend by burglars who broke into a pharmacy after tunneling through a wall from a doctor's office.

Torrance police found a pick axe and two flashlights at the scene Monday after Marianne Heinz opened the center and found the ransacked offices.

The thieves entered the office of Dr. E. W. Knutson at 22800 Crenshaw Blvd. through a window during the night, investigators reported. After searching the office for drugs, the burglars used a pick axe to tunnel through a wall into the pharmacy.

Torrance police found an 18-by-16-inch hole in the wall leading to the pharmacy where the shelves were searched for assorted drugs.

Michele Fox, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fox of 21413 Marigold Ave., has been admitted as a patient at Orthopaedic Hospital in Los Angeles.

Area Woman Hospitalized After Crash

A Torrance woman remained in good condition Tuesday at Torrance Memorial Hospital after she struck by a car pulling out of a parking space at a market.

Hazel Knopp, 79, of 28866½ Torrance Blvd., was struck by an auto driven by Beulah Schield, 1415 Amapola Ave., as she crossed behind the auto, which was backing out of a parking space at the Lucky Market lot at Torrance and Crenshaw boulevards.

Torrance officers Donald Feil and Edmund Ahlstrom reported they found the woman on the ground at the rear of the auto after being called to the scene. At that time, the victim said she was hit in the right hip.
